Solutions

- A dedicated team of event managers to handle the transfers ensuring all guests were greeted from the plane and transported to the hotel with ease
- Importing giant Sunbrellas from the UK in case of wet weather at the gala dinner
- An onsite evening playroom and sleep room for children ran by a local nursery
- A collection of small boats shuttling guests from the mainland to the Island throughout the night
- A large team of event managers onsite, strategically placed to assist guests at all times
- Regular site visits and consistent communication to ensure the clients vision was delivered
